1. Sheep must be a registered yearling ewe or ewe lamb.
2. Sheep must be trained to show at halter. You should not touch the animal in the show ring.
3. Sheep will be judged on general appearance (fitting, cleanliness, etc.) and control using a halter.
4. Sheep does not have to be owned by the contestant.
5. Points will not be deducted for Southdown's or Shropshire's that are slick shorn.
6. Provisions will not be made for pens for Lead Line sheep. You may keep your ewe in a trailer in the parking lot as long as you have the proper health papers.
7. All contestants must pre-register by reporting to Annette Lovell. Health papers and Registration papers for sheep that are not entered in the breed show are to be shown at pre-registration at 8:00 A.M., Saturday October 7, 2023, near the show ring. You do not need your sheep and you do not need to be dressed at this time. Senior division contestants will need to be lined up by 8:45 A.M.
8. The sheep should be structurally correct and a good representative of the breed. Sheep may be decorated tastefully.
9. The contestant will be judged on poise and appearance. Outfit should be appropriate to age of contestant.
10. Part of the outfit must be at least 80% wool.
11. Contestants may be questioned by judges on topics pertaining to sheep and wool.
12. Please adhere to deadlines. Commentaries must be mailed to Annette Lovell. Make payment to Annette Lovell not KILE.

Entries will be judged according to the following scorecard:

40 - Contestant and Contestant's Outfit
25 - Control and Presentation
35 - Appearance of Ewe
100

Premiums in each division are offered by Fulton Bank ($150), The PA Sheep & Wool Growers Association ($150), and Byron Waggoner Construction ($150).

1st – $40; 2nd – $30; 3rd – $20; 4th through 8th – $10 each; 9th and 10th – $5 each. Special Awards will also be awarded by breed associations and various other donors.

Pens will not be available to exhibitors who are only bringing sheep to the Lead Line competition.
