ELECTRIC:

One 120-volt power outlet is included per 10x10 booth. If you require more electricity, complete a Utilities Order Form and submit to the PA Farm Show Complex. All electrical equipment provided by the exhibitor must be UL (Underwriters Laboratory) approved. SHOW MANAGEMENT DOES NOT FURNISH EXTENSION CORDS. Please turn off your electronic devices at close of business each day.

INSURANCE REQUIREMENTS:

Our insurance company now requires all exhibitors to name Keystone International Livestock Exposition as an additional insured on their liability insurance policy and have a Certificate of Additional Insured forwarded to KILE by ~~9/15~~ Sept. 30, ASAP preferred.

ALL KILE exhibitors, regardless of status (non-profit, for-profit, selling product, or just an informational booth), MUST have liability insurance and must have their insurance company send a Certificate of Insurance naming KILE as an additional insured. When contacting your insurance company, please verify that your policy expiration date is AFTER the final day of the show you are attending. This certificate MUST be issued on an annual basis, as the policy expiration date is listed on the certificate. All certificates must list the company name shown on your Application for Booth Space as the insured. Certificates may be mailed to Jana Mellott, 1432 Trails End Road Harrisonville, PA 17228, or emailed to auntjana@embarqmail.com. If you have questions concerning this matter, please do not hesitate to contact our office.

RETAIL SALES TAX LICENSES:

All exhibitors making taxable sales must be registered with the State of Pennsylvania. Pennsylvania residents making taxable sales must have a Pennsylvania Sales Tax License, which they should already possess. Out-of-state exhibitors making taxable sales must obtain a Transient Vendor Certificate. There is no charge for this certificate and the required forms may be completed online: <https://www.pa100.state.pa.us>.
