

Keystone International Livestock Exposition 2023

Ranch Riding Show Judges

Judge Biographies

Adam Guiste.....	2
Jennifer Sawyer.....	3

Adam Guiste

Hometown:

Clarksville, PA

Shows:

Ranch Riding

Adam Guiste is employed by Penn State University as an Equine Extension Associate for the Western Region, a 27-year professional Horse trainer and Farrier, a graduate of the Kentucky Horse Shoeing School as well as an esteemed equine Judge holding cards in 5 different associations, including the American Ranch Horse Association, Member and Show Manager for the Fort Armstrong Ranch Horse Association in Ford City PA.

He attended Westmorland County Community College and California University to study Education and minor in business.

Adam also worked with various trainers with knowledge of different breeds and disciplines to become a well-rounded horse trainer. With this knowledge, he enjoys teaching kids, teenagers, and adults and watching them improve their skill sets and grow. Adam grew up in Venango, Clarion, and Fayette Counties and was an active member of the Bullskin 4H club. Because of his roots in 4-H he finds his work extremely rewarding as he works closely with the Pennsylvania 4-H groups as well as the youth extension programs helping to provide learning opportunities for the up-and-coming youth, both at the county and state levels.

Jennifer Sawyer

Hometown:

Silver Springs, FL

Shows:

Ranch Riding

A 32 year career judge with her roots in central New York, Jennifer is thrilled to return to the northeast to mark the cards at the 2023 Championship Show.

Jennifer is a carded judge with 5 national organizations and has judged World or Congress shows for all 5 in the last 10 years. Beginning her judging career as a fresh graduate of SUNY Morrisville, she has now judged over 500 shows lifetime both here in the US and Internationally. A strong supporter of ranch and the development of the discipline with our youth, she has played a strong role in bringing it into 4H programs in Ohio, Indiana, New York and New England as well as her home state of Florida. Under the heading of her business The Swamp Gang, Jennifer and her clients compete actively in AQHA, AQHA VRH, ARHA, APHA, PtHA, PHBA, AHA and open circuits throughout the south and including AQHA Congress, PHBA World, AQHA Youth World and the Arabian Nationals in 2023. As a clinician Jennifer has promoted ECRRA at Horse World Expo on multiple occasions as well as Equine Affaire and countless local clinics and seminars.