SPECIAL RULES

GENERAL:

In addition to these Special Rules, this department is subject to the General Rules and Regulations as stated.

The show is sanctioned by the American Boer Goat Association (ABGA) 4258 South Jackson Street, San Angelo, TX 76903, (325) 486-2242, (325) 486-2637 fax. ABGA rules shall govern the show. The sanctioned show is open to all exhibitors.

While every effort is made to prevent typographical errors, Keystone International Livestock Expo is not responsible for errors and/or omissions that may appear in this catalogue/rules listing. We reserve the right to correct, adjust, alter, update, or remove any matter in this catalogue/rules listing without notice. Announcements the day of the show will take precedence over any previously printed information.

HEALTH RULES AND REGULATIONS FOR GOATS:

1. All goats must bear an official USDA/APHIS Scrapie ear tag to be exhibited at the show. The only exceptions are those goats that have a registration tattoo and have been coded with a Scrapie premises number.
2. Certificate of Veterinary Inspection: All goats to be exhibited must be accompanied by a Certificate of Veterinary Inspection signed and dated by an accredited veterinarian with an inspection date within the 30 days prior to the date of arrival at the show. All goats must be individually identified on the CVI. All animals must be free of evidence of infectious and contagious diseases and a statement of this should be written on the CVI.
3. Vesicular Stomatitis (VS) Statement: This applies to states that experienced a VS outbreak in the last 12 months. In these cases an accredited veterinarian shall determine whether the animals are free from VS, and animals shall be accompanied by a CVI with the following statement signed by the accredited veterinarian: "All animals identified on this CVI have been examined and found to be free from VS. During the past 90 days, these animals were not located within 10 miles of a site where VS has been diagnosed."
4. Tuberculosis Testing Requirements:
 - (a.) No test is required for animals originating from states or zones designated as accredited-free by the USDA.
 - (b.) All animals originating from states or zones designated modified accredited advanced by the USDA must be test negative within the 60 days prior to the date of importation. The negative test results and date of test must be included on the CVI or the animal must be accompanied by a negative test report (a copy of the original report is acceptable).
 - (c.) All animals originating from states or zones designated modified accredited must originate from herds in which all animals 12 months of age and older have tested negative within the 12 months prior to the date of importation; and the individual animals (all ages) to be imported have also tested negative within the 60 days prior to the date of importation and at least 60 days after the negative whole herd test was completed. The negative test results and date of test must be included on the CVI or the animal must be accompanied by a negative test report (a copy of the original test report is acceptable).
5. Goats may be examined on grounds by show personnel, veterinarians, or state-federal personnel.
6. No animal showing signs of infectious, contagious, or external parasitic disease will be allowed into the Pennsylvania Farm Show Complex & Expo Center. However, exhibitors who observe an animal that may present a health hazard to other animals are asked to report the stall location to the show committee. The official show veterinarian, in consultation with Show Management, shall be responsible for determining the health status of an animal.

7. Animals showing evidence of infectious, contagious, or external parasitic diseases shall be removed by their owner from the show grounds at the direction of Show Management.
8. Animals with natural horns, disbudded, or dehorned may be shown without regard to discrimination.
9. An exhibitor shall not present an animal to be shown under a judge from whom it was purchased within 90 days of the show.
10. Exhibitors shall be responsible for all of the security, safety, and care of their animal.
11. Pens will be assigned. Exhibitors will be penned together if possible when the request is submitted. Requests must be submitted prior to the entry deadline.

IDENTIFICATION:

12. A USDA ear tag with a US shield; or
13. All goats must have an official ear tag or a legible tattoo with herd and individual identification recognized in an approved USDA Scrapie database a.k.a. scrapie tattoo (only for herds enrolled in the USDA Voluntary Scrapie Herd Certification Program); or
14. A breed registration tattoo if the tattoo is legible and the registration certificate accompanies the animal.

SHOWING:

15. Only one person may be in the ring to show each animal. Heelers will be allowed in the Yearling Classes and older to set the animal's legs ONLY.
16. There will be a seven-minute maximum gate call between classes.

ENTRIES:

17. Animals registered in the American Boer Goat Association, Inc., must list their registration number on the entry form.
18. Each exhibitor is not limited to the number of entries they can enter per class.
19. All entries are non-refundable. No refund will be granted for disqualified entries or scratched entries.
20. Entries must be entered online by August 31, 2021. Entries submitted after August 31 and prior to September 10, 2021 are considered late entries and must pay additional fees. Late entries will be accepted if space allows and at the Show Manager's Discretion.
21. A goat may show in one division only. Wether does cannot show in the Breeding Division, or vice versa.

36. Straw and shavings are the only bedding materials permitted to be used by goat exhibitors. Initial bedding will not be provided. It must be furnished by the exhibitor.

GROOMING:

37. Use only grooming products that are approved for use on meat-producing animals when fitting any animal for show. Unapproved products may contain ingredients that result in unacceptable residues in the meat. If it is not certain that a product is residue safe and approved for use on meat animals, do not use it!

STRUCTURES:

38. No tents, canopies, or similar structures may be erected in the goat barn.

UNETHICAL PRACTICES:

39. A committee representing Show Management will observe the handling of all animals, both in and out of the show ring, and will have the authority to disqualify any exhibitor for unethical practices.

ABGA SHOW

IDENTIFICATION:

40. All goats must have legible tattoos consistent with the registration certificate or the animal will be disqualified. If an animal is disqualified due to illegible or inconsistent tattoos, all lower placing animals will be moved up in placement. The top five in the class plus the Champion and Reserve Champion goat's tattoos must be read and recorded. The judge will be responsible for ensuring that tattoos are read and properly recorded. Permanently implanted microchip identification will be accepted by ABGA as official identification in addition to, or in lieu of, tattoos. The owner is responsible for providing the appropriate scanning device to read any microchip used for identification purposes.
41. An animal winning Champion or Reserve Champion must have a legible tattoo and/or microchip that matches the Certificate and age classification correctness must be verified from the same Certificate by show judge before said animal receives the award. A Champion or Reserve Champion that does not have a legible tattoo, a tattoo that matches, or a correct microchip that matches its registration certificate or an animal that is improperly classified by age will forfeit its win. When this happens, the Champion/Reserve Champion will then be selected from the remaining animals in the championship selection class plus the animal that stood next in the class placement to the animal that forfeited its win. The Champion and Reserve Champion of the day shall be selected only from those animals presented at the ring at the time the class is called by the steward and/or judge.

REGISTRATION:

42. All goats must be registered in the ABGA herd book.
43. Original registration certificates are required, except that a copy of a registration application, stamped with the date received by ABGA, can be accepted for kids less than 3 months of age. Animals over the age of 3 months must have the original registration certificate in hand at time of show.
44. Temporary Registration Certificates generated at the time of online registration with ABGA will be accepted in lieu of the original registration certificate until the expiration date indicated.

OPEN SHOW POINTS:

45. Only goats entered under their ABGA registration number and presenting their ABGA Certificate of Registration will be eligible to earn points for their actual placing in the show as described in the ABGA Criteria for Ennoblement of a Boer Goat. (See ABGA Rule 1000, Ennoblement Program).

COMPUTING AGES:

46. Birth dates, as listed on the registration certificate, will be used in determining class divisions. In order to calculate the class breaks, take the show date and count back to the birth date to determine the age and the class for the animal.
47. The original certificate, stamped duplicate registration application, or temporary registration certificate, as the requirements for the age of the animal shown, must be available to the Show Secretary and/or Show Management for verification of correct classification at any time upon request.

CLASSES:

48. Show Management reserves the right to split classes.
49. All animals must be registered percentage, purebred/fullblood Boer Goats.
50. Progeny of fresh does will not be allowed in the ring.
51. At the discretion of the judge(s) and or the Superintendent, a goat may be let loose in the ring/arena as a function of judging.
52. The Champion and Reserve Champion Classes will be chosen from the first- and second-place animals in that division of the show.
53. Divisions will be defined as follows:
 - A. American Percentage Does
 - B. Fullblood/American Purebred Does
 - C. Fullblood/American Purebred Bucks
54. Overall Grand Champion shall be selected from the winners of the Grand Champion from each division. Overall Reserve Champion shall be selected from the winners of the Grand & Reserve Champion from each division.

55. In classes where there is no competition, awards shall be made by the judge according to the merit of the animal. In class(es) where the quality of the animal(s) is not of Champion consideration type, the judge shall begin the class(es) with a second-place ribbon and the animal(s) shall not compete for Champion or Reserve

56. In classes where there is no competition, awards shall be made by the judge according to the merit of the animal. In class(es) where the quality of the animal(s) is not of Champion consideration type, the judge shall begin the class(es) with a second-place ribbon and the animal(s) shall not compete for Champion or Reserve Champion.

57. Entries may not be added or withdrawn from a class without permission from the ring steward after the class is in the ring and judging has started. The only possible exception is in the event that such animal was previously entered in the wrong class. The class shall not be reopened after judge has begun announcing reasons for placement.

EXHIBITOR RESPONSIBILITY:

- 58. No animal bracing allowed at ABGA Sanctioned Shows
- 59. It is the responsibility of the exhibitor to refrain from presenting any animal owned by the presiding judge within 90 days prior to the show date.

RELEASE TIME:

60. Animals are released from the barns as follows:

RELEASE/VACATE TIMES
Junior Market	Junior Market goats will be released at the conclusion of the Junior Market Goat Show.
Boer Goats	ABGA & JABGA goats will be released at the conclusion of the Open Show #2 and must vacate by 8:00 AM on Monday, October 4.
ANY EXHIBITOR REMOVING ANY OF THEIR ANIMALS FROM THE BARNs BEFORE RELEASE TIME WITHOUT APPROVAL OF THE SHOW MANAGER WILL FORFEIT ALL THEIR PREMIUM MONEY AND MAY BE SUBJECT TO REJECTION OF ALL ENTRIES THE FOLLOWING YEAR.

JABGA SHOW

Except as listed below, the JABGA show is subject to the Special Rules for Open Boer Goats.

ENTRY ELIGIBILITY

1. Exhibitors must be in accordance of the JABGA By-Laws in terms of age and be an active member of the Junior American Boer Goat Association. Must present current JABGA card at check-in. Copies or digital copies of cards are acceptable.

SHOWING

2. If the child is present and physically able, they must show their own animal unless they have multiple entries; then they must have another JABGA member to show the animal for them.
3. If the child is physically unable or not present due to specific circumstances approved by Youth Committee or involving a death in the family, family emergencies, or religious reasons, they must have a JABGA member show for them, and it must be reported to the ABGA Youth Coordinator before the goats arrive at the show.
4. ABGA members under the age of twelve (12), as of January 1, or members with physical or mental disabilities are allowed to have a heeler in the class, but the member must help in the presentation of the animal. The heeler must present current membership card upon entering the ring.

REGISTRATION

5. All goats that are not bred and owned over the age of ninety (90) days must be in the herd book thirty (30) days prior to being exhibited at a JABGA-sanctioned show. All goats must be registered in the JABGA member's name only. No ranch or family name can be listed in the owner section of the certificate. Any goat that is transferred to a Junior exhibitor's name for showing at a JABGA-sanctioned show cannot be transferred back to the seller and/or seller's agent for a period of one (1) year.
6. JABGA members may show goats registered in sibling's/stepsibling's names at any JABGA-sanctioned show with an approved letter. A current approved letter from ABGA must be presented to the show secretary.

SHOWMANSHIP

7. JABGA will divide the membership into three age divisions for the purpose of JABGA activities and Showmanship Classes.
 - a. Junior Division (4-8 years of age)
 - b. Intermediate Division (9-13 years of age)
 - c. Senior Division (14 years & older)
8. ALL AGES WILL BE DETERMINED AS OF JANUARY 1, 2021.
9. Exhibitors entering showmanship must use a goat that is registered in his/her name and entered in the JABGA show. If a sibling letter is presented (Rule #6), and they do not have a goat entered, the exhibitor may use a sibling's/stepsibling's goat that is entered into the JABGA show.
10. If the JABGA member has a goat entered in the JABGA show, goats in sibling's/stepsibling's names may not be used for showmanship purposes.
11. Participants that do not have an animal entered into any JABGA competition may borrow an animal for showmanship purposes only. That selected animal can only be used by one exhibitor during the competition and cannot be exhibited by multiple participants.
12. All show results received by the JABGA will be final.
13. All ABGA rules, breed standards, classes, judges, and entries apply. All JABGA-sanctioned shows are required to have a BRED AND OWNED CLASS. One class each for the PERCENTAGE DOES, FULLBLOOD DOES, AND FULLBLOOD BUCKS. All ages will compete in one class.
14. The JABGA reserves the right to not sanction and/or to not tabulate placings for points submitted by a show or not yet submitted by a show that didn't follow the ABGA rules, breed standards, classes, judges, and entries.
15. The JABGA strongly suggests that JABGA members own and care for his/her own goats. Directors and members of the JABGA discourage unethical ownership and care.
16. Exhibitors and parents should always conduct themselves in a sportsmanlike manner. Infractions of this rule may cause immediate termination of membership by a majority vote of the Board of Directors.
17. Judges for JABGA-sanctioned shows are required to be an ABGA-approved judge. Judge's name must be published sixty (60) days prior to the show.

18. Drug Testing & Cheating

- a. Drug testing cannot be refused if the show deems necessary.
- b. No specific cheating rule in place, but the show may enforce one if deemed necessary.
