Matthew Nott resides in southern Union County, Ohio with his wife, Megan, stepson, Zander, and son, Avrom.

Matthew is very active in his family's show pig business, where he specializes in breeding and placement of young show pigs. He is a Sales Consultant for Nott Show Feeds, which is a Lindner Show Feeds Distributor located in Woodstock, Ohio.

Matthew also supports his wife's livestock skin and hair business, Stay Fresh.

Matthew has been judging pig shows and assisting with show pig selection, feeding, and showmanship skills for over 15 years in dozens of counties around Ohio and several other states. He always looks forward to the opportunity to see youth from around the country driving quality show pigs in competition from inside the ring.
